A Global Company That Aims To Bridge Gaps Along The Way.

Choosing a career and deciding on institutes can be a daunting task in itself, with the added confusion of long procedures to enroll in a prestigious university, prepare the documentation, and apply for a visa if going abroad. We at Cidentify want to help!

Our journey has just begun; we plan to give in the best we can to get the best out of you.

We believe every student is an individual with unique talents. Our platform paves the way for these students to climb up the ladder of success and reach beyond their expectations. We can help you achieve your goal of getting into the top university of your choice. Once you approach us, rest assured that you will receive the best assistance possible.

Updation in the rapidly evolving field of career guidance and counseling is another one of our concerns. Therefore, we want to provide students and private centers the skillset to handle these challenges with full confidence and an easy-going positive attitude. All they are required to do is follow and complete the task list available on our platform; it's that easy!

Vision

To be the most effective and user-friendly career planning platform for schools, students, teachers, career counselors, universities, and colleges in the region, while working in the best interest of those aspiring students.

To facilitate and assist students from across the globe from all walks of life regardless of age, gender, and race.

To lead this aim in full confidence.

Mission

*"All of us do not have equal talent, but all of us should have an equal opportunity to develop our talent."
- John F. Kennedy -*

We live by this rule. Therefore, Cidentify promises to help you kickstart your career. This is achieved by bridging the gaps between the education providers and the receivers, whether you plan to approach our platform yourself or through your schools and universities.

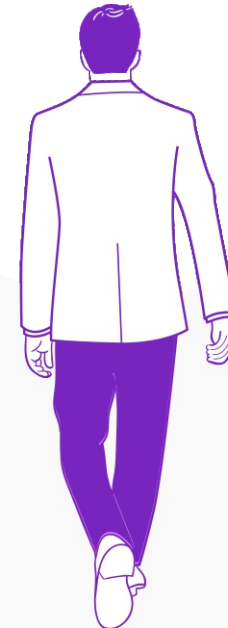

This carefully designed platform has the mission to act as a facilitator in assisting students to reach for the stars while worrying very little about the technicalities and procedures that go into it. We want to make sure that whoever comes across our services leaves with something new that can benefit them to gain more and be better at what they put their foot in.

We are here to prepare you for the practical world.

Career Management System

Recent studies show that over half of people are unhappy with their jobs and careers, making them seek career counseling programs to get the right direction in their lives. This type of counseling focuses on helping people make the best of their careers, whether they are just starting in the work force or having been in it for long.

Cidentify actively provides career guidance to students, parents, and schools by giving them the scope to vary their lives and succeed in possible things via self-awareness using their potential.
